Main Festival Presentations

Saturday, September 16

9 am Celebrating Seventy Years of the Best Children's Books – Memorial Union, Kansas Room

Beverly Buller, chairperson of the William Allen White Children's Book Award, introduces this state prize, a selected author, and how kids can help choose winners. (Kid Friendly)

Poets In Praise of Prairie – Mabee Library, Room 303

Wild Words, a chapbook by Humanities Kansas, reconnects Kansans to the prairie through poetry. Join editor Megan Kaminski in conversation with poets Canese Jarboe, Aubrey Streit Krug, Huascar Medina, Janice Northern, and Wyatt Townley. Moderator: HK Director of Grants, Leslie VonHolten.

Kansas Notable Books – Mabee Library Lounge

15 Notable Book Awards are presented to standout Kansas authors by State Librarian Ray Walling, including fiction, poetry, nonfiction, and children's books.

Literature of Crisis – Mabee Library, Room 300

Fiction thrives on conflict, but when set during times of crisis, character is doubly tested. Join K.L. Barron (Thirst, Africa, political violence), Catherine Browder (Resurrection City, Japan, earthquake/tsunami/nuclear meltdown), and Susan Kraus (When We Lost Touch, United States, Covid) for a discussion of writing that grows out of extreme conditions. Moderator: KSU English Prof, Michele Janette.

10 am Why We Travel – Memorial Union, Washburn Rooms A & B

Pulitzer finalist Chloe Cooper Jones (Easy Beauty) talks with veteran travel writer Rolf Potts (The Vagabond's Way) about the philosophical underpinnings of taking journeys, and how travelers might endeavor to seek "difficult beauty" on the road. Moderator: Travel writer Jon Arlan.

First Books for First Readers – Mabee Library, Room 300

Three authors of books that introduce the alphabet (Yanfei Gao, ABC Dinosaurs), space travel (Stephen T. Johnson, My Big Silver Rocketship), and the changing seasons (Sue Gallion, Our Seasons) talk with parents and children about tangible learning. Moderator: Angie Grau, Owner of Paper June Bookstore. (Kid Friendly)

Childhood through a Different Lens – Memorial Union, Kansas Room

Jenn Bailey, author of popular books about a boy with autism (A Friend for Henry and Henry, Like Always), talks with parents and kids about how children can cope with mental health issues, supporting peers who struggle. Moderator: Media Specialist Tonya Foster with Student Isabella Culbertson. (Kid Friendly)

Strangers at Home – Mabee Library, Room 303

James Davis (Club Q), who is a gay poet from a conservative Christian family, discusses estrangement with Jesse Nathan (Eggtooth), a poet of Jewish and Mennonite parentage who grew up in Berkeley, California and a farm in south-central Kansas. Moderator: Former Kansas Poet Laureate: Eric McHenry.

2023 PANEL SCHEDULE

11 am Shaping a Book with a Shovel and Ruler – Memorial Union, Washburn Rooms A & B

Mike Ciccotello, winner of the 2023 Bill Martin, Jr. Picture Book Award, talks about the journey of Beach Toys vs. School Supplies from idea to book. Moderator: Emporia Education Professor Heather Caswell. \(Kid Friendly\)

Land and Legacy – Mabee Library, Room 300

Two writers talk about Kansas communities with different legacies. Kate Benz (Nothing but the Dirt) reports on Courtland, a north-central community unwilling to give up on itself. Raylene Hinz-Penner (East of Liberal), describes a southwestern Mennonite community still coming to terms with tensions between land ownership and former inhabitants. Moderator: Joshua Falleaf, Lenape Citizen, Lawrence Chamber of Commerce.

Suicide in our Midst – Memorial Union, Kansas Room

Two respected authors talk about the alarming increase in suicides from a personal perspective, having survived actual attempts (Clancy Martin, How Not to Kill Yourself) or having lived under the shadow of multiple suicides (Juliet Patterson, Sinkhole). Moderator: Poet Michael Kleber-Diggs.

Poetry, Collaboration, & Therapy – Mabee Library, Room 303

Poets Dennis Etzel, Jr. (Everything is Ephemera), Jericho M. Hockett (In the Bodies), and Annie Klier Newcomer (Comets: Relationships That Wander), plus artist Barbara Waterman-Peters, discuss the therapeutic benefits of creative collaboration, particularly with the anthology Kansas Speaks Out: Poems in the Age of Me, Too.

Keynote (Memorial Union, Washburn Rooms A & B)

12 pm IMAGINATION SET LOOSE: LING MA'S PRIZE-WINNING SPECULATIVE STORIES

Ling Ma, winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for fiction, shares from her acclaimed collection—Bliss Montage—and discusses why she is drawn toward stories that don't conform to the rules of realism. Moderator: Radio host Kaye McIntyre. Sponsor: Kansas Public Radio.

1 pm Why We Love Baseball – Memorial Union, Washburn Rooms A & B

Baseball gurus Joe Posnanski (Why We Love Baseball: A History in 50 Moments) and Bill James (The Bill James Handbook 2023) converse about their favorite subject and why it is their favorite! Moderator: Library Director Brad Allen. Sponsor: Lawrence Public Library.

Stranger than Reality – Memorial Union, Kansas Room

A Turkish garbage collector rescues throwaway musicians and forms a clandestine orchestra. A volcano erupts in New York's Central Park, impossible to ignore as it towers higher. Hear two rising fiction writers—Kenan Orhan and JES (John Elizabeth Stintzi)—discuss the power of speculative storytelling. Moderator: fiction writer Andy Farkas.

Girl Go-Getters in Middle Grade Novels – Mabee Library, Room 300

The author of a historical novel set in Kansas (Kathleen Wilford, Cabby Potts, Duchess of Dirt) compares notes with the Kansas-based author of a contemporary fantasy (Sarah Henning, Monster Camp) written for the same age group, 8-12 year olds. Moderator: award-winning storyteller Priscilla Howe. \(Kid Friendly\)

Crafting Community Through Poetry – Mabee Library, Room 303

How is community created and supported through poetry? Poets laureate from Kansas (Traci Brimhall) and Missouri (Maryfrances Wagner) discuss their experiences as workshop leaders, and event organizers, also their involvement with literary centers. Moderator: Award-winning poet Michael Kleber-Diggs.
